

The Canadian Gemmological Association Diamond Award

This annual award has been created to bring attention to those who have made significant contributions through influence and support to Canadian Gemmology

These contributions and influence can be made through:

- Business
- Gemmological Education
- Gemmological Research
- Exploration and Mining of Canadian Gemstones
- Development of instruments
- Practical applications such as lapidary and diamond cutting

Recipients Must:

Be in good standing with the CGA, GEM-A.

Not be a current officer on the CGA Board.

How to nominate:

Fill out the nomination form on the CGA website

www.canadiangemmological.com

- June 30, 2020 - Nomination Deadline
- July 2020 - Recipient Voted on by CGA members
 - Recipient will be selected by a majority vote of CGA members
- October 1, 2020 – Recipient is named

The winner will receive a $2000 CAD cheque from the CGA

Their name added to a permanent plaque listing all recipients at the CGA Toronto Office and on the CGA website.